

Challenge Activities

How do they survive underwater?

How do sea creatures breathe underwater? Most animals use special organs called gills. Circle the animals below if you think they have gills:

For the animals that you didn't circle, investigate how they are able to survive life underwater.